

PRAQUE

photo workshop

SEPT 28 -
OCT 6
2024

Enjoy the beauty of the city, its landmark sites, architecture, museums, food & beer!

All while sharpening your photographic skills!

Sample Daily Schedule

6am	Early Personal Photo Time
9:30	Breakfast & Masters Talk
10:00	Review of Student Work
12:00	Free Time - Explore the City
3:30	Street Shoot until last light (6 ish)
7:00	Dinner - On your own or with a group

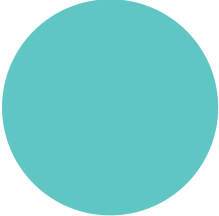

We meet each morning for Barb's breakfast spread and coffee. There will be daily presentations about the Masters and an open discussion. Then we will look at all the student work from the previous day. When complete you are free to enjoy the city.

At 3:00pm Kevin will take half of the students for a photo excursion away from the immediate city and Landon will take the other half and challenge them within the city. After the sun sets (approx 6pm) everyone can have dinner (in small groups or on your own - sometimes the whole group)

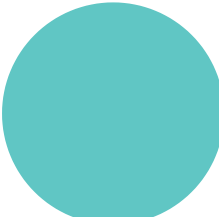

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

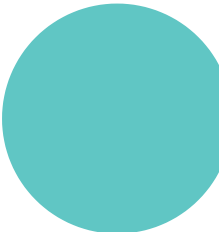

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN PHOTOGRAPHY & TRAVEL?

If you are a serious street photographer all three instructors are here to push you to your creative limits...and then some. We are nice, and fun but tough!

If you are a novice or a beginner and a bit timid on the streets - Don't worry. Look at the student work from last year (pages at the end) Only two had limited street experience and they worked hard and the work shows it. We were all blown away. There is no better way to learn fast than by having good instructors and shooting on the streets.

If you like to travel to beautiful places, eat delicious food, drink local beer & wine, see castles, art and culture as well as making new friendships and get really great photos this is the workshop for you.

Barbara Peacock

Barb is best known for her work associated with American Bedroom and Hometown although Barb began her photographic career on the streets while at The Museum School, Boston in the early 80's. She has since studied with Mary Ellen Mark, Eugene Richards, and Ernesto Bazan. She is the founder of the popular Facebook group - 'Pure Street Photography' and is one of the admins that orchestrate weekly critiques for photographers worldwide.

Landon Pallian

Photographer, painter, filmmaker and clothing designer. His two photographic monographs are of Cambodia and Americana. He was an adjunct professor at Boston University and holds a degree in painting from The School of the Museum of Fine Arts/Tufts University, Boston. He has had numerous exhibitions and his photographs and paintings are privately collected. His work is archived at the Library at the SMFA.

Kevin V. Ton

Kevin is a freelance award-winning Czech photographer based in Prague. His art mainly focuses on candid black-and-white humanistic documentary photography, especially in the form of long term projects. Kevin has been passionately dedicated to street photography for many years. He initiated the establishment of the photographic association VERNUM Photo.

Are TRAVEL BUDDIES!!

Bring your BFF
Partner
Sister / Brother
Family Member

We have structured the workshop so there is plenty of downtime for you to enjoy the beauty of Prague. Why not bring a friend? There will be time for you to dine together, see museums, and explore the city. While you are in class or shooting Tag-alongs can hang out with the other tag-alongs!

And we all become one big family!

Accomadations

We use a variety of Airbnb's close to the Charles Bridge and in the center of the city. We try for great locations as well as views. The earlier everyone books the better chances for amazing places.
